Logging into a user's account

To log on as a regular user, follow these steps:

1. Expand the Actions drop-down to the right of the line, and select View individual settings.
2. This will launch the regular CommPortal interface for that line in a new browser window.

For more details on modifying settings on behalf of an individual user see here

---